Company Profile

Cargomar, established in 1993 has fast grown into a global conglomerate with operations in Europe, Far East, Middle East and the Asian Pacific Region. Equipped with a wide network of state of art offices in over 25 nations around the globe, employing more than 300 direct and 40 associated staff members, Cargomar is moving ahead with a vision to be a global partner to importers & exporters worldwide.

Business solutions from the global leader

Operations

As an IATA/FIATA accredited operator and service provider, Cargomar is professionally qualified to manager shipments by air, ocean or a sea/air combination. At Cargomar, a resource pool of professionals in infrastructure networking, consultancy and human resource meticulously study the transport requirements of the client and propose the best possible solution to suit their requirement. Customized logistics programmes are also designed to meet the unique needs of your company, customers, and budget. Cargomar also provides support to an existing logistics department of a company, by working with the staff as a third party support group or by managing the company's entire logistic functions, whether on-site or off-site.

Beyond boundaries

Think global act local

Our Philosophy

Endeavor to employ the best in human resources and technology and create an enduring partnership with our clients worldwide.

Our Culture

At Cargomar, we create an environment where employees get opportunities to showcase their true potential and offer meaningful solutions to the logistics challenges of customers. Our firm believe in quality has attuned our people towards Total Quality Management. These practices have played a large role in the high retention ratio of our customers.

Our Vision

Constantly strive to maintain ourselves as a world-class entrepreneurial and profitable organization, without sacrificing the values that uphold our reputation.

Human Resources

We consider human resources as one of our best assets. We pick and choose people by evaluating their ability and attitude in adapting themselves to the professional environment of Cargomar. We believe in training and continuous improvement and so put our resources through various training programs. We have key process and performance indicators to evaluate performance of our staff and set higher goals for them from time to time based on their accomplishments.

Credentials

The group has proven its credentials, time and again, by being an integral part of the customer's success, thus creating a strong bond with our clientele.

Our Services

- Ocean Exports & Imports ■ Air Exports & Imports
- Customs Broking ■ Sea/Air & Air/Sea combined Transport Operation
- Consolidation Service – Air & Ocean ■ Warehousing & Distribution
- Freight Management ■ Projects ■ Exhibitions

Our Systems

Cargomar is a systems-driven organization with a personal touch. We have procedures and processes in place to drive the Cargomar engine, where human resources fit in as value-added wheels and to take the vehicle to its destination with safety and efficiency. We upgrade and expand on our IT base periodically. We re-engineer processes and procedures that deserve a revisit over a period of time, thereby ensuring that the system is stable and capable to meet our customer's challenges and exceed their expectations. The concept of reinventing cycles on the methods and procedures based on custom-specific long-term goals has helped us develop customer-specific logistics solution packages.

Ahead on performance

Core Strength

Though we have embraced the best in technology and used its merit for customer satisfaction, we have also developed a personalized back up system that will keep our customers in touch with our staff anytime, everywhere. Our manual back-up systems and procedures help us deal with automation bottlenecks. In short, we consider our highly personalized customer service support system as our core strength.

Customer Satisfaction and Performance Reviews

Customer satisfaction surveys conducted by internal and external professionals measure the satisfaction levels of our corporate customers with respect to various avenues of our service. These not only help us understand where we stand but also help take corrective action, thereby getting closer to the customer and exceeding their expectation levels with continuous refinement of our services.
